Hiking Proposals "Around the Zwölferhorn"

ROUND PATHS WITH RETURN ROUTE TO GONDOLA MOUNTAIN STATION

1. Pillstein Panorama Round Path:
Walking time: 1 – 1,5 hours
(easy walking-tour)

From the gondola mountain station to the Franzl's Hütte, south through the wood to the Arnikahütte, descending to a valley, left to the Roßhütte, then south-west around the Pillstein, now north descending again to the valley where the round path closes, ascending back to the Arnikahütte and the gondola mountain station. (wonderful view points with many rest benches)

2. Illinger Alp Round Tour (IAR):
Walking time: 3,5 – 4 hours (medium difficult) Hiking boots necessary!

Same as panorama round path until Roßhütte, then approx. 200 m until signpost, here branching off right to forest path descending to the Pillstein saddle, over a meadow path to the "Marterl", descending left to the "Illingerbergalm", here ascending right on a forest path, then south-east over an alp path to the "Spitzeckhöhe" (1351 m), descending over a wood path to the mountain inn Illingeralm, back to the signpost, ascending over a forest path to the alpine huts "Illingerbergalm", ascending back to the "Marterl", on easy path back to the panorama round path and the gondola.

When walking on round paths please note the last descent of the gondola!

The area around the Zwölferhorn and the Pillstein is a hiking paradise for everyone and all seasons. You will reach it within only 16 minutes driving time by the Zwölferhorn gondola. The hiking area with the panorama route around the Pillstein will turn into an experience. The environment is cultivated, the primeval stands of old species of trees are characterized, special geologic rock formations are interesting too. The whole family – old and young – is hiking at the Zwölferhorn, even with the pram you won't have a problem. Two mountain inns and cultivated exceedingly comfortable pasture cottages (Illingeralm, Arnikahütte, Sausteigalm ...) are gladly inviting you for a rest at the mountain.
